None.

Historical Sketch

The provenance of the majority of the material in this collection is unknown, however, if an individual item or group of documents has any acquisition information, it will be indicated in brackets at the end of the description. Where biographical or historical information is available it has been included in the description of the item(s) or a note has been made where to find that information.

Scope and Content Note

The Funeral Notices Collection consists of a variety of documents that were mostly acquired as single items. There are, however, cases where there were only a few documents with little biographical, historical or acquisition information that would warrant the creation of a separate finding aid (or the amount of time and staff resources required to process them as a collection). The items in this collection did not fit into other artificial collection categories (ie. Broadsides Collection, Civil War Collection, etc.) and include such things as letters, programs, business cards,

Donor Information

Unless otherwise indicated in the finding aid, the provenance of the item is unknown (0000-0).
